Easily share plan details from anywhere, anytime

Some customers like to have a quick visual reference to help them understand travel insurance plan benefits and covered situations. Having even easier access to this information gives customers more confidence to choose the right travel protection for their needs.

Instant access—no paper required!

The digital brochure experience is a game-changing answer to what your customers have asked for and what travelers expect in today's market. With one quick download, you can offer customers the most up-to-date product information—wherever they are and whenever they need it. No more rummaging through print inventory to check plan effective dates (nobody's got time for that), no more wasted paper (eco-friendly, for the win!), and no more waiting for office visits or snail mail to deliver info that makes your customers' purchases easier. A two-page, printer-friendly format makes plan details easy to read and grasp quickly—while still making it easy to print a copy at home, for customers who are into that.
